Subject

Petition Regd No 4844 dd the 20th Aug '03 addressed to H.H. the Maharaja of Mysore by one Veerabhadra Setty of Malur offering his house at Malur for the purposes of the AV School at the place, he setting only a rent of Rs 10 a month during his life time

The Petitioner is childless the offer seems to be one made out of charitable views The Secty (Edn Dept) has no papers on the subject

Say the Petition be forwarded to the Dfl of Edn for report?

A draft docket is subd for approval

Subd to Secy with a draft C/L & P/S

The Petition was forwarded to the Dfl of Edn for report

The Dfl states in reply that the house of Veerabhadraselli of Madras is ~~extraordinarily~~ valued at Rs 600 only. It is situated in a narrow lane and its surroundings are highly insanitary. The building consists of about a dozen ill-ventilated and dark rooms of small size and is covered by a mud roof.

The I.G. thinks that it is not likely that the house would last long unless it is rebuilt. The owner wants a rent of Rs 10 a month as long as he and his wife and other members of his family live. The I.G. regrets to say that the petitioner of the owner of the house to H.H. the Maharaja appear to him more as an attempt to get handsome rent as a provision for his family than to obtain His Highness' sanction for an act of charity.

Submitted for orders.

Under the above mentioned circumstances the Petitioner's offer may, it is submitted, be declined

OFFICE OF INSPECTOR GENERAL OF EDUCATION IN MYSORE, Bangalore, 14th October 1903

From

H J BHABHA, Esq,
Inspector General of Education in Mysore,

To

H V Nanjundaya Esqre, B A, B L, Secretary to the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, General and Revenue Departments.

SIR,

With reference to your Docket No 1754 dated 12th October 1903 I have the honour to inform you that the house of Virabhadra Setti of Malur is valued at Rs 600 only. It is situated in a narrow lane and its surroundings are highly insanitary. The building consists of about a dozen ill-ventilated and dark rooms of small size and is covered by a mud roof. The owner wants a rent of Rs 10 a month as long as he and his wife and other members of his family live. He and his wife are under 45 years. The house is utterly unsuitable for the accommodation of a large school. I regret to say that the petitions to His Highness the Maharaja appear to me more as an attempt to get handsome rent as a provision for his family than to obtain His Highness' sanction for an act of charity. It is not likely that the houses now offered for rent would last long unless they were rebuilt. The petitions are herewith returned.

I quite agree

I have the honour to be
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Humble memorial of Veerabhadra-setty, Son of Gowrasetty, Resident of Malur

May it please your Highness

Your memorialist begs to approach your Highness with due deference and submission and prays that your Highness' benign consideration may be drawn to the following few lines, hoping his prayer will meet with success

On the 19th February 1903, your Highness' memorialist despatched a proposal to your Highness' Education Secretary, offering your memorialists' dwelling house for Government School purpose on condition of receiving ten rupees in the shape of rent from the Government, per mensem, during his life time, and after your memorialists' decease, the proposed and offered house should be taken entirely to Government possession, as your memorialists' bequest

An order from your Highness Education Secretary was passed to the Headmaster of the Malay Government Anglo-vernacular School that a plan of the proposed house, its situation and environment should be prepared and submitted to him

In accordance with the said order, a copy of the plan of the proposed house and its environment was submitted to your Highness Education Secretary

Up to the present moment your memorialist has not been favoured with reply of either acceptance or rejection, from your Highness Education Secretary, although more than 6 months have expired since the proposal was laid before him

Your memorialist has a large house consisting of 8 rooms for holding school classes; and they have windows sufficient to admit of light There needs no alterations in the proposed house at present as it is Your memorialist has no male issue to perpetuate his memory His present age is 44 years He has no inclination whatsoever to adopt any one from his collateral brothers or Cousins

Your memorialist begs of your Highness to cause an order to be passed to the Education Secretary to grant his request as early as he can without further delay

For this act of benevolence your memorialist as in duty ever bound to pray

He begs to remain your Highness

Your Highness' obedient & humble Servant
